Team member skills and style (Who is good in this subject matter? Who has other interpersonal or professional skills do we need? What are our working styles (Work at night, in advance, last minute, with feedback, etc.)? What are our work experiences?)

Name	Skills, Knowledge, Previous Work	Preferred working style
Gabriel Malke	I completed an apprenticeship as a sales representative at the Volkswagen Group and therefore have solid knowledge about Cars and Automotive sales. In Addition, I am good at working in a Team and contribute my strengths effectively, such as coordinated and well-structured	My preferred working style is flexible. I adapt easily to my teammates and do not have a specific preference.

L Moryakantha	Background in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning with hands-on experience in fullstack development and collaborative research projects. Skilled in data analysis, problemsolving, and clear technical communication.	Semi-Organized and proactive, prefers early planning, clear task division, and open feedback. Flexible with teammates schedules and committed to meeting deadlines.
Maria Kirakosyan	I have experience as a Quality Assurance Expert, focused on external quality assessment and accreditation of educational institutions. I am currently a member of multidisciplinary expert teams responsible for meticulously auditing institutional documents and strategic plans. My role requires strong analytical skills to compare an institution stated goals with its actions,often concluding with on-site verification.	While being adaptive, I still prefer a Balance style that is both structured and cooperative. I prioritize setting a clear, detailed plan for individual tasks to maintain consistency.
Hardik G D	Great with talking and strong in sales and marketing having making profits up to 300000 rupees to an entertainment company at the age of 14 and running multiple businesses throughout Gaming knowledge in Semiconductors and electronics side could adapt and learn anything really really fast, I am good in management and have good leadership qualities and can contribute to anything in a Short given amount of time being creative.	Preferred working style: Can work as a team or can Even lead but need to know and complete stuff prior to deadline and keep pushing harder and always looking to get it right in first time.
Rabia Khan	I have strong skills in organization, presentation, and Communication. I am experienced in preparing group projects and managing Deadlines effectively.	I enjoy coordinating tasks and ensuring that our team work stays structured and goal-oriented.
